LB 336

sure that raffles are not subjected to the same kinds of regulatory provisions as other kinds of lotteries are in this act. They will be picked up in LB 259 as that bill moves through. I appreciate your support for this amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is the adoption of the Vard Johnson amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted that want too? Eight are excused, Senator Vard Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Gee, I didn't think I would have any difficulty on this small technical amendment. I see my difficulty is. . . it must be, it must be the bill to which it is attached, I can't believe it.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Did you want to do something?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I am thinking of doing something.

SPEAKER NICHOL: And, what is that?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Well. . . I'm thinking of asking for a Call of the House, that is what I am thinking of doing.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is shall the House go under Call. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 4 nays, to go under Call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The House is under Call. Will you please return to your seats and record your presence. Those listening in on the PA system, over the PA system, please return the Legislature and record your presence. Unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. Record your presence please. Please record your presence. I didn't know we were started taking call ins.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I didn't hear any call ins, that is why I was wondering. I'm ready.

CLERK: Senator Chronister voting yes. Senator Labedz voting yes. Senator Sieck voting no. Senator Wesely voting yes. Senator Rod Johnson voting yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 13 nays, on adoption of Senator Vard Johnson's amendment.
